

The JFTC holds the Bilateral Meeting with the National Development and Reform Commission of the People's Republic of China

September 12, 2016
Japan Fair Trade Commission

The Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC) has regularly held the bilateral meeting on competition law and policy with the competition authorities in other jurisdictions for the purpose of building the cooperative relationship as well as developing the mutual understanding.

The JFTC will hold the meeting with the National Development and Reform Commission of the People's Republic of China (NDRC) as follows.

1 Date: September 13, 2016

2. Venue: Tokyo, Japan

3 Participants:

JFTC Commissioner Takashi Yamamoto and other officials

NDRC Director General of the Authority's Price Supervision and Anti-monopoly Bureau Zhang Hangdong and other officials

4 Agenda:

Recent developments

Advocacy activities to regulatory authorities