

About the Leniency Program

Joint Application

Upon certain conditions being met, two or more violators within the same company group will be permitted to jointly file an application for surcharge reduction or immunity. All the applicants will be assigned the same order of application.

Expansion of the Number of Leniency Applicants

A total of 5 violators including before and after JFTC's investigation are permitted to file an application for surcharge reduction or immunity. (Up to 3 applicants after the investigation start date.)
