

USFTC-JFTC Roundtable on the Federal Trade Commission at 100

September 24, 2008
Japan Fair Trade Commission

The U.S. Federal Trade Commission, which in six years will mark the 100th anniversary of its establishment, is now undertaking a self-assessment to consider what type of institution it should aspire to be when the Commission's second century begins in 2014. As part of the project the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC) will co-host, on October 7th in Tokyo, a roundtable entitled "FTC-JFTC Roundtable on the Federal Trade Commission at 100 : Japanese Perspectives".

Date: Tuesday, October 7, 2008 10:15 a.m. – 12:45 p.m.

Venue: JFTC large conference room (11th floor of the JFTC building)

Agenda: 1. Assessing the Effectiveness of the Federal Trade Commission

2. The Federal Trade Commission's Enforcement, Advocacy and Research Agenda

3. The Federal Trade Commission's International Agenda

Participants: FTC (Chairman Kovacic and others), JFTC (Chairman Takeshima and others), university professors and private practitioners

Registration

The roundtable is open to the public, but pre-registration is required. Please send e-mail containing the following information at intnldiv@jftc.go.jp no later than Wednesday, October 1 (Since the capacity of the room is limited the registration may be closed before the date.).

1. Subject (please write "roundtable" as subject of the e-mail)
2. Name
3. Organization
4. Contact information (e-mail address, telephone number and fax number)

Note) The dates of the roundtables are as follows. For additional information, please refer to the USFTC website (<http://www.ftc.gov/ftc/workshops/ftc100/index.shtm>)

Washington, DC (July 29-30, 2008)

London (September 12, 2008)

Ottawa (September 18, 2008)

Chicago (September 25, 2008)

Tokyo (October 7, 2008)

Brussels (October 21, 2008)

Paris (October 24, 2008)

New York (October 24, 2008)