

The JFTC Opens Secondary Review Concerning the Proposed Business Integration Between Fukuoka Financial Group, Inc. and The Eighteenth Bank, Ltd. and Solicits Comments from Third Parties

July 8, 2016

Japan Fair Trade Commission

The Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC) received the notification pursuant to the provision of the Antimonopoly Act (AMA) from Fukuoka Financial Group, Inc. (JCN9290001028986) (FFG) concerning the proposed business integration between FFG and The Eighteenth Bank, Ltd. (JCN7310001000829) (18 Bank), and has reviewed possible impacts on competition from the proposed business integration. With the knowledge that a more in-depth review is necessary, today, the JFTC requested FFG to submit further reports, information or materials, pursuant to the provision of Article 10(9) of the AMA. The JFTC also starts seeking comments from third parties concerning possible impacts on competition that would arise from the proposed business integration in the manner shown below.

The request by the JFTC for reports, etc. does not mean that the proposed business integration would pose any concerns with respect to the AMA.

(Footnote)

The JFTC has been authorized to conduct reviews on whether business combination plans may be substantially to restrain competition in particular fields of trade by following procedures prescribed in the AMA. When a notifying corporation submits the notification form to the JFTC and the JFTC receives it, the notifying corporation is prohibited from effecting the planned business combination in question until the expiration of the 30-day waiting period from the date of receipt of the said notification. During the waiting period, concerning the business combination in question, the JFTC will normally either; (1) judge that the said business combination is not problematic in light of the AMA, or; (2) judge that more detailed review is necessary and request submission of the necessary reports, information or materials.

In the case of (1) above, to improve transparency of the review of business combination, the JFTC shall give notification to the effect that it will not issue a cease and desist order.

In the case of (2) above, the period when the JFTC may give notice prior to cease and desist order shall be extended until 120 days after the date of receipt of the notification or 90 days after the date of receipt of all reports etc., whichever is later. In case the JFTC judges in this extended period that the business combination plan in question is not problematic in light of the AMA, it shall give notification to the effect that it will not issue a cease and desist order, same as the case of (1).
