

The JFTC holds the 9th Bilateral Meeting
with the Competition & Markets Authority

March 16, 2016
Japan Fair Trade Commission

The Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC) has regularly held bilateral meetings on competition policy with competition authorities in other jurisdictions for the purpose of building the cooperative relationship and promoting the mutual understanding.

The JFTC will hold the 9th bilateral meeting with the Competition & Markets Authority (CMA) of the United Kingdom as follows. Japan-the UK meetings have been held since 1990.

1. Date: March 17, 2016
2. Venue: London, the United Kingdom
3. Participants:
 - JFTC Commissioner Hiroyuki Odagiri and other officials
 - CMA Chairman David Currie and other officials
4. Agenda:
 - Recent Cases of Big-rigging
 - Abuse of Super Bargaining Position
 - Use of Economics in Merger Review