

The JFTC holds the 36th Bilateral Meeting with the U.S. Federal Trade
Commission and the U.S. Department of Justice

April 24, 2019
Japan Fair Trade Commission

The Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC) has regularly held the bilateral meeting on competition law and policy with the competition authorities in other jurisdictions for the purpose of building the cooperative relationship as well as developing the mutual understanding.

The JFTC will hold the 36th meeting with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (USFTC) and the U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division (USDOJ) as follows.

The meeting between the JFTC and the USFTC/USDOJ has taken place since 1977.

1 Date: April 25, 2019

2 Venue: Tokyo, Japan

3 Participants:

JFTC	Chairman Kazuyuki Sugimoto and other officials
USFTC	Commissioner Christine Wilson and other officials
USDOJ	Deputy Assistant Attorney General Roger Alford and other officials

4 Agenda:

Recent Development and Enforcement Updates
Digital Economy and Competition Policy
International Cooperation