

EU-Japan Competition week

November 15, 2022

Japan Fair Trade Commission

The Japan Fair Trade Commission and the European Commission have cooperated with each other on competition law enforcement and exchanged views periodically based on agreement concerning cooperation on anticompetitive activity, etc. And currently there are a lot of challenges related to green economy, digital economy and so on that both commissions have tackled.

The Japan Fair Trade Commission and the European Commission will hold “EU-Japan Competition Week” to exchange knowledge of these challenges and to deepen our cooperation further. The overview of the competition week is as follows:

1. Date

From Wednesday 16th to Friday 18th November, 2022

2. Method

Online

3. Attendees

Officials from the Japan Fair Trade Commission and the European Commission’s Directorate-General for Competition

4. Program

16 th Nov	-Competition law and sustainable co-operation
17 th Nov	-The use of remedies in prohibition decisions -Experiences with investigating mergers in digital markets
18 th Nov	- Issues regarding digital markets